If the system fails while attempting to create an account, be sure that the I have received an invoice for this account in the last 90 days check box is not selected.

AIA (Account Invoice Authentication) is required to add an account number (existing) if that account number has been issued an invoice within the past 90 days (Recent three). The AIA is not needed for new accounts.

To view negotiated rates (ABR) using Shipping or Rating APIs:

- The account must be setup for negotiated rates.
- The account must be AIA authenticated if the account has generated an invoice within the 90 days (US & Canada) and 45 days (all other countries).

Note from UPS

Some tracking data may not be returned in the response because the data rolled off. Database retention times:

- Manifest information, and Manifest Voided scans: 120 days
- Exceptions scans: 120 days
- In Transit scans like Origin/Arrivals/Departures/Destination scans: 120 days
- Delivery records and signatures images: 120 days

Tracking numbers are available up to 120 days after delivery. UPS makes every effort to ensure that a tracking number uniquely identifies a package for 120 days. However, it is possible that a tracking number may be reused within a shorter time period. If this occurs, a query by tracking number returns all packages matching the tracking number.

For complete step-by-step instructions, refer to AIM+ Online Help and search for the topics available under the section labeled, Viewing UPS Tracking Information.
