

Things to Do in Austin

1. Close your real estate transaction at Stewart Title!
2. Learn the story of Texas at the Bob Bullock Museum
3. Take a cool, refreshing dip in Barton Springs Pool
4. Tour the Capitol building
5. Go windsurfing on Lake Travis
6. Glide through Town Lake on a rented canoe
7. Savor a bowl of Amy's ice Cream
8. Tour the city's art galleries
9. See the entire city from the University of Texas clock tower
10. Sift through 10,000 bizarre trinkets and gadgets at Toy Joy
11. Ridicule bad movies along with live comedians at the Alamo Drafthouse's Master Pancake Theater
12. Wolf down a stack of delicious pancakes at Kerbey Lane Cafe
13. Pick your favorite suite at the historic Hotel San Jose
14. Dance to live music and meet local artists while you shop on South Congress on the first Thursday of every month
15. Run (or walk) the Fun Stop 5K
16. Watch the sun go down over the lake on the deck at the Oasis
17. Catch a live comedy show at Cap City Comedy Club
18. Try on a crazy costume at Lucy in Disguise with Diamonds
19. Visit the giant statue of Stevie Ray Vaughan
20. Cheer with the crowd at a UT Longhorns football game
21. Join 75,000 of your closest friends at the two-weekend Austin City Limits Music Festival
22. Get a picture with Leslie Cochran's statue
23. Argue over where to find the cheapest breakfast taco
24. Dip your chip in a bowl of Mag Mud at Magnolia Cafe
25. Picnic on Sunday at Waterloo Park
26. Walk, jog or ride your bike over more than ten miles of trails at Ladybird Lake
27. Run wild and free with your puppy off the leash at one of Austin's many dog parks
28. Bicycle on scenic Loop 360
29. Splash around while you watch a movie in the water at Deep Eddy Pool's Splash Party movie nights all summer long
30. Watch a million bats stream out from under the Congress Ave. Bridge, the largest urban bat colony in North America
31. Count the steps to the top of Mt. Bonnell
32. Catch a cool breeze from Lake Austin on the wide deck at Mozart's Coffee
33. Find a shadowy corner and listen to jazz at the Elephant Room
34. Pick out a new CD at Waterloo Records
35. Laugh until you cry at Esther's Follies, a variety show with music parodies, hilarious sketches, political satire, and magic
36. Take a free tour of the elegant governor's mansion
37. Shake your feathers with the roaming peacocks at Mayfield Park
38. Get up early on Saturday morning to buy locally grown goodies at the Austin Farmer's Market downtown
39. Sip an iced coffee on a warm night at the Spiderhouse Cafe's twinkling outdoor patio
40. Find the moonlight towers

41. Spend a day touring the LBJ Library and Museum, the largest presidential library in the nation
42. Eat popcorn to all your favorite old movies during the historic Paramount Theatre's Summer Film Classics Series
43. Treat the kids to a fun afternoon at the Austin Children's Museum
44. Order a cocktail at the luxurious Driskill Hotel
45. Relax, rest your tired feet and enjoy a ride on the Zilker Zephyr miniature train
46. Discover a Hill Country winery
47. Find a funky shop along "The Drag" (Guadalupe St. running beside the UT campus)
48. Go all natural at the expansive Whole Foods World Headquarters
49. Two-step the night away at the Broken Spoke
50. Feed the body and the soul at a Sunday gospel brunch at Stubb's Barbeque
51. Cozy up in an armchair and read at BookPeople
52. Join the crowd for a big concert at the Frank Erwin Center
53. Pay your respects to many legendary Texas politicians and heroes at the beautiful and serene Texas State Cemetery
54. Hike, bike, climb, swim, picnic, walk, run, disc-golf, and ride the kiddie train, all on sprawling Zilker Park's 351 acres
55. Marvel at the unique architecture of the Frost Bank Tower downtown
56. Sing the blues at the legendary Antone's
57. Head a little south of town to New Braunfels and brave the giant tubes and slides at Schlitterbahn Water Park
58. Take a scenic hike at Emma Long Metropolitan Park
59. Revel in the sweet sounds of the Austin Lyric Opera
60. Embarrass your out-of-town visitors and sing along at Pete's Dueling Piano bar on Sixth Street
61. Dance salsa!
62. Have your martini shaken, not stirred at a swanky bar in the trendy Warehouse District downtown
63. Shiver your way through an Austin Ghost Tour
64. Reserve a front-row seat for a play at the ZACH Theatre
65. Find your favorite local microbrewery
66. Tiptoe into a Ballet Austin show
67. See the 600-year-old Treaty Oak tree
68. Meet a sweet senior citizen at the Old Bakery and Emporium
69. Get lost in the enormous Blanton Museum of Art
70. Throw a long shot at Pease Park's disc golf course
71. Explore the trails and beautiful art at the Umlauf Sculpture Garden
72. Grab a tasty sandwich at Austin Java
73. Adopt a pet from the Austin Animal Center
74. Give in to a decadent desert at Chez Zee American Bistro
75. Make your own independent film or just pick your favorite at one of Austin's many annual film festivals
76. Rock out at SXSW
77. Befriend a lion at the Austin Zoo
78. Go back in time at the Jourdan-Bachman Pioneer Farms
79. Say bonjour to the French Legation, the oldest building in Austin
80. Cheer for your favorite Texas roller derby girl
81. Grab a pint at Scholz Garten, the oldest business in Austin
82. Build a bike from scraps at the Yellow Bike Project
83. Celebrate Eeyore's birthday party
84. Rollerblade down the Veloway
85. Line up your best shot at Buffalo Billiards
86. Take a load off on the beach at Hippie Hollow
87. Sip on a bottle of locally made Live Oak Beer
88. Catch a fly ball in the stands at a Round Rock Express game
89. Order a big plate of enchiladas while you dine in the hubcap room at Chuy's
90. Shop 'til you drop at the Domain
91. Frolick with your kids in the fountains at Southpark Meadows
92. Lick barbeque sauce off your fingers at the Salt Lick
93. Discover the underworld at Inner Space Caverns
94. Play bingo with live chickens at Little Longhorn Saloon
95. Spend the whole weekend at the Old Pecan Street Festival
96. Visit the Elisabet Ney Museum in Hyde Park
97. Hang up your car keys and take the Metro Rail for a night out downtown
98. Test your wits at the annual O. Henry Pun-Off
99. Sip a cup of cocoa at the Zilker Tree Lighting during the holiday season