The ALTA® Homeowner's Policy – Providing greater coverage

There are two types of owner’s title insurance policies certified by the American Land Title Association® – the Owner’s policy and the Homeowner’s policy. The Owner's policy protects you from defects and liens in the history of your title through the date and time your deed is recorded in the public records. The Homeowner’s policy takes your protection to a higher level by providing coverage for many additional risks – including some that might occur after the deed has been recorded.

The Homeowner’s policy protects against many common, frustrating problems; and protects your investment for as long as you or your heirs own the property. Read on for a description of some of the additional coverages you’ll receive when you upgrade to a Homeowner’s policy.

More Coverage, More Peace of Mind

Building Permit Violation Coverage
Covers up to $25,000 after a deductible equal to the lesser of one percent of the policy amount, or $5,000. This coverage applies if you have to remove an existing structure (excluding boundary walls and fences) built by a previous owner who did not obtain the required permits.

Subdivision Map Act Coverage
Pays up to $10,000 after a deductible equal to the lesser of one percent of the policy amount, or $2,500. This coverage applies if you cannot close a sale, secure a loan or obtain a building permit because the land was improperly subdivided prior to purchase.

Location Coverage
Ensures that the home has the same address as the property insured in the policy.

Restrictive Covenant Violations Coverage
Protects against loss of title if someone attempts to enforce an existing restrictive covenant due to a violation that occurred before the policy date.

Zoning Coverage
Protects if you are forced to remove or remedy a structure because it violates zoning laws. Protection for forced remedy of violations is subject to a deductible and a maximum dollar amount.

Post-policy Coverage
Protects against possible post-policy ownership claims as a result of forgery or encroachment.
