Where to Stay

On-site Tent Camping

Only those with a four-day pass may access the camping area. Camping is free, but if you would like to park your vehicle (car or truck) by your camp site you will need to purchase a parking pass at check-in. If your vehicle does not display a campers parking pass it will be towed at your expense. Nearby parking is available for those with vehicles they won't be parking at their camp site.

On-site RV Camping

RV spots must be reserved. If you're sleeping in it and it has wheels, then it counts as an RV. Each RV space reservation includes two rally registrations at no additional charge. Only those with a four-day pass may access the RV area.

Preferred Hotels

Each hotel has it's own unique benefit of making your stay a pleasurable one, whether you require extra trailer parking, bike wash station, free wi-fi, ROT hotel partners have it all. Special discounted rates have been negotiated for you but will expire two weeks prior to the rally. You must mention you are with the rally to get the discounted rate. Please visit rotrally.com for a listing of participating hotels.

ROT Rally Friday Night Parade and Party

On Friday, June 14, Austin is closing off 54 square-blocks of downtown for a massive party on Congress Avenue. The 11-mile parade will form at 7:00 p.m. at the Rally grounds and will be escorted into downtown by the Austin Police Department promptly at 7:45 p.m. The parade ends at the Capitol, where thousands of spectators wait to get the party started. Be sure to join in the largest metropolitan biker party you'll ever see once the parade has ended. Over 200,000 people will pack downtown, with Congress Avenue closed exclusively for biker parking and a free concert featuring headliner bands.
