

Dear Stewart Partners,

We hope all of you of you are adjusting to the end of daylight saving time. It always takes some time to get used to the fact that the commute home from work is now done after the sun has set and with headlights on.

In this week's update we want to remind you that Thursday is Veteran's Day and Registries will be closed. Our offices at Stewart are open and we'll be here to answer your underwriting questions. In addition, there are several upcoming educational webcasts that are scheduled this month. Details and sign-up information for each is below. Lastly, and right in time for holiday shopping, we included the most recent newsletter from SANS Security Awareness.

- Veteran's Day

Thursday is Veteran's Day and we want to take the opportunity in today's update to thank all the men and women who have served our country. It is because of the service provided by these brave men and women that we can enjoy freedoms and liberties many of us sometimes take for granted. Thank you for your service!

- Upcoming Webinars

The first is focused on expanding your marketing efforts by using video, and the second is an economic recap of 2021 with some predictions of what is ahead presented by Stewart's Chief Economist, Ted Jones.
