To All Agents and Approved Attorneys:

In accordance with Governor Raimondo's Executive Orders 20-03 and 20-14 requiring any persons entering Rhode Island from another state or territory, or a location outside of the United States, to self-quarantine for 14 days, the State of Rhode Island has issued a communication instructing realtors and others involved in real estate transactions to do the following:

- Include the addendum below, and Self-Quarantine Advisory letter as attachments with any lease, rental agreement or deed. The addendum requires potential tenants, renters, lessees or purchasers of real estate in Rhode Island to acknowledge (at time of signing) receipt of the advisory letter informing them that persons coming to the State of Rhode Island from another state, territory or a location outside the United States must immediately self-quarantine for fourteen (14) days.
- Such persons should report any applicable self-quarantines to the Rhode Island Department of Health via this portal: <https://health.ri.gov/forms/surveys/oos-survey//> and as further outlined in the attached letters.
