3. Subordinate Mortgages

- A. The charge for title insurance on second mortgages shall be the same as on first mortgage transactions. The minimum charge shall be $100.00.
- B. When separate policies are issued simultaneously insuring multiple mortgages on the same property, they shall be treated as a single transaction and the charge shall be based on the aggregate of liability for the policies.

4. Extension of Loan Policies

When endorsements are issued extending the effective date of a policy up to a current date, the charge shall be as follows:

TERM	CHARGE
Up to 2 years	20% of Basic Schedule of Charges
Over 2 years and up to 5 years	35% of Basic Schedule of Charges
Over 5 years and up to 10 years	50% of Basic Schedule of Charges
Over 10 years	100% of Basic Schedule of Charges

Periodic draw endorsements under an insured mortgage, no charge within 2 years from the date of the insured mortgage.

Any increases over the existing face amount of the policy shall be at the applicable charge.

5. Reissue Charge – First Mortgage Only

Reissue charges apply up to the original face amount of the previous policy. If more insurance is desired under a reissue policy than was written in the original policy, the excess coverage must be computed at the basic insurance charge. The minimum charge is $100.00.

- A. Owner's, Loan and Leasehold:
When a policy has been issued on the same property within 10 years, a reissue charge of 50% on residential or commercial properties of the original charge shall be applicable up to the face amount of the previous policy, except when application is for coverage on a second or subordinate mortgage. The prior title insurance policy must be physically furnished by the purchaser or purchaser's representative to the entity issuing the new title policy prior to issuance of a new commitment. Ten years or over the premium will be 100% of the basic charges.
- B. Lot Development:

When an owner's policy (original policy) is issued insuring property purchased by a developer, reissue charges will apply to owner's or loan policies subsequently issued on any individual lot, condominium unit, residence or acreage sold by the developer, provided however that such reissue charge shall apply only to policies issued within 10 years from the date of the original policy, and the reissue charge shall apply only until policies have been issued of which the face amount equals amount of the original policy.

6. Loan Policies Insuring Temporary Construction Loans

- A. Stewart will, upon request, issue a loan policy with a two-year construction exception, good for a period not to exceed 2 years, in connection with a temporary construction loan for the following charge: $1.75 for each $1,000 of written liability or fraction thereof, with a minimum charge of $100. A loan policy insuring a temporary construction loan shall be issued only in connection with a temporary and short-term mortgage for the financing of construction secured by a temporary mortgage or deed of trust, as distinguished from a permanent mortgage or deed of trust securing a permanent mortgage.
- B. If an Owner's Policy to insure the lot value is issued simultaneously with a Loan Policy insuring a temporary construction loan, the Owner's Policy will be calculated at the basic or reissue charge, whichever is applicable. The premium charged will be the higher of the two calculations. An additional premium of $100.00 will be charged for such simultaneously issued Loan Policy.
- C. If the construction loan becomes the permanent mortgage, the charge shall be computed at the applicable charge for loan policies. However, Stewart will allow as a credit the entire charge paid for the loan policy insuring a temporary construction loan.
- D. If the temporary construction loan is refinanced by a permanent mortgage and Stewart is asked to issue a loan policy in connection with a new mortgage instrument securing the permanent mortgage, no credit shall be allowed against the charge thereof because of the charge for the loan policy insuring a temporary construction loan.
- E. Builder Construction Loan Credit Lines and Additional Property: For the purposes of determining the charge for an endorsement adding lots to an existing builder construction credit line loan policy, the additional charge shall be based on the value of each new parcel or real estate added to the policy's coverage after its original issuance at the Basic Schedule of Charges. Lots may be added to the original loan for no charge until the value of the property added equals the original amount of insurance. For example, if a $1,000,000 construction loan initially secures 10 lots worth $30,000 each, for a total of $300,000, the insured has $700,000 remaining as a "credit" on the line. That "credit" amount is reduced by the cost of each new lot plus the cost of construction of improvements on the new lot. Thereafter, a charge will be made for any endorsement adding a new lot to the mortgage. That charge is based on the value of the new lot plus the cost of construction of improvements as the Basic Schedule of Charges.

F. CLOSING PROTECTION LETTERS

A fee of $25 per Closing Protection Letter (CPL) is payable in full to the Underwriter at closing for the additional risk it assumes when providing a CPL. In the event of a second mortgage or HELOC by a lender other than the primary lender, an additional fee of $25 would be payable.

A CPL is available as an option to the parties of the transaction. This protection is apart and separate from the coverage provided under the title insurance policy; however, title insurance must be purchased as a condition for a CPL to become an available option. The election for a CPL must be made prior to or at the time of closing. The protection is available to the purchaser, lender and seller if it involves a sale/purchase transaction, or the borrower/lender in a refinance transaction.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Foreclosure Insurance Policy

The premium for the policy shall be 40% of the Basic Loan Policy charge with a minimum charge of $100.00. A credit of 50% of the premium paid for the Policy and Down Date Endorsement would be provided on one Owner's Policy issued at the Foreclosure Sale or to the purchaser from the original purchaser if the new policy is issued within 24 months after the recordation of the Foreclosure Sale Deed.

The ALTA Limited Pre-Foreclosure Policy is a policy to be issued prior to foreclosure and would be issued to a foreclosing lender, trustee (in deed of trust states), and/or lender's attorney. The policy insures as to various title matters according to the public records: (1) the ownership of the land; (2) leases, options, or contracts to purchase; (3) notices of bankruptcy; (4) notices of default or foreclosure; (5) defects or encumbrances recorded after the foreclosing mortgage; and (6) addresses and assignments of the above matters or claimants. The Policy is issued in anticipation of a foreclosure of a mortgage and provides the mortgagee with record information regarding those persons who should be joined in a foreclosure action or who should be notified of a foreclosure. Continuation of coverage could be provided by an ALTA Limited Pre-Foreclosure Policy Date Down Endorsement.

2. Planned Project

A. Whenever the developer of an apartment project, condominium project or subdivision desires to purchase multiple owner's or loan policies aggregating $5,000,000 or more, and separate policies on various parcels, leases, units, or apartments, or mortgages are required to be issued to different insureds at different times, the developer may purchase insurance in the amount of the estimated total of all policies to be issued.

The charge applicable to individual policies shall be the charge applicable to a policy in the amount of the estimated total of all policies to be issued.

B. The charges provided for planned projects shall only apply if:

- 1) A commitment is issued, covering all real property which shall be insured, in the estimated total amount of all policies to be issued, and
- 2) All policies are issued within the period of 60 months from the date of the commitment.

If a developer elects to use the planned project charge, no reissue or extension charges shall be applicable to the developer's coverage.

3. Time Share

The legislature of South Carolina has enacted a law entitled "Vacation Time Sharing Plans" which provides for both vacation timesharing ownership plans and vacation time sharing plans. S.C. than one year. The greater part of the Act is concerned with regulations designed for the protection of purchasers. The minimum charge for time share shall be $75.

H. ENDORSEMENTS

Endorsements for special or unusual risks that are requested by the insured and acceptable to Underwriter may be issued and charged for at a price agreed upon by Stewart and the insured.

1. All other endorsements to furnish special coverage will be issued and the charge therefor will be a percentage of the charge applicable to the policy on which the endorsement is written commensurate with the risk assumed by the issuance of such endorsement.
