HIGH PRIORITY!

Jack,

Good morning, I hope all is well. Remember my three pig clients I worked with about a year ago? Well, they're ready to move, but are in a bit of a twisted situation. I just got off a call with them and they have an ongoing issue with their neighbor, a pesky wolfluencer, whose social media antics has resulted in displaced property. Once I heard that, I knew Stewart was the best company for the job.

Let me know if you are available for a quick call with them later today.

Sincerely,

Gretel Liederhosen
