

Meet Your Presenters

Title Tenets Commercial Real Estate Webinar Series

John H. Agle Counsel

Energy Specialist at Stewart Title Energy Group

John Agle has over 36 years of experience in the title insurance industry, almost all within the commercial submarket. He has been involved in developing client relationships and underwriting insurance risk in the energy development sector for over 20 years. John's experience extends to wind, solar, geothermal, hydro, storage, gas-fired, and biomass/biofuel projects on a national platform.

Dawn M. Anderson

Associate Senior Underwriter, Stewart Title Energy Group

Dawn Anderson has acquired more than two decades of industry experience. Having overseen commercial operations in addition to underwriting counsel and planning/zoning commissioner roles, Dawn has emerged as a reliable and frequently trusted industry expert on a variety of CRE-focused concerns. More recently being focused on the energy/renewables sector, Dawn is one of Stewart's foremost specialists in this vital, dynamic and technically challenging area. Dawn is a graduate of Mitchell Hamline School of Law where she obtained her Juris Doctor degree.

Lindsey Lindbloom

RPL Senior Account Manager, Stewart Title Energy Group

Lindsey Lindbloom, RPL is Senior Account Manager. Lindsey has fulfilled a number of critical industry roles, ranging from project coordination to national operations and client services management. With experience rooted in renewables, commercial real estate, oil/gas as well as pipeline and utilities, Lindsey has successively partnered with a nationwide professional network of underwriters, law firms, engineering firms and surveyors among others. Lindsey obtained her BLA from Michigan State University.

Lacy Ward McCormick

Senior Counsel, Stewart Title Energy Group

Lacy Ward McCormick is Senior Counsel, Stewart Title Energy Group. A graduate of University of Memphis with a master's degree in Regional Planning/Urban Regional Planning, Lindsey has amassed an extensive data- and research-based background in addition to significant commercial development experience. Lacy obtained her J.D. from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law of the University of Memphis.

