HOUSTON (August 25, 2020) – Stewart Information Services Corporation announced today that Kevin Reilly has returned to Stewart as the new Executive Vice President for Agency Services, responsible for providing nationwide leadership and overseeing execution of strategic direction and planning for agencies in Stewart’s Trusted Provider™ network.

Prior to rejoining Stewart, Reilly was Senior Vice President, North Atlantic Regional Manager at First American Title, where he grew their commercial agency market share tremendously, focused on building trusted customer relationships. Previously, Reilly was Vice President, Agency Manager at Stewart Title from 1999 to 2011.

“Kevin’s proven leadership and customer-first focus will be a significant addition to our Agency leadership team,” said Tara Smith, Agency Group President, Stewart Title. “Building a strong team, with leaders like Kevin, enables us to best serve our Agency customers and accelerates us toward our goal of becoming the Premier Title Services Company.”

“I’m excited to come back home,” said Reilly. “I’m ready to hit the ground running and support Stewart’s leadership in building the number one underwriter in the industry. Our agents can expect me to continue Stewart’s legacy of exceptional service, responsiveness and reliability as I collaborate with our agents to help them build, grow and innovate.”

Reilly earned his bachelor’s degree in Marketing from the University of South Carolina.
