HOUSTON, TX (August 5, 2021) – Stewart Information Services Corporation (NYSE-STC) announced today that Agency Group President Tara Smith is a recipient of the 2021 Women of Influence Award presented by HousingWire. The annual award, now in its 11 year, honors 100 women shaping and propelling the mortgage, real estate and fintech industries forward.

The Women of Influence are selected by HousingWire's Selection Committee based on their professional achievements within their organizations. Contributions to the overall industry, community outreach, client impact and personal success also factor into the committee's decision.

Smith is a two-time recipient of the award and was previously honored in 2017.

"I am deeply humbled to be a part of this amazing group of women making an impact across our industry," said Smith. "Though the past year has been challenging, it's been rewarding to see obstacles turned into opportunities all while keeping our customers first and helping shape the next generation of leaders. Additionally, I'd like to thank my colleagues and the HousingWire Selection Committee for this wonderful honor."

Smith serves as group president, responsible for Stewart's agency operations. She oversees Stewart's independent title agency network of Trusted Providers™ and all products and services offered to the agency network.

"Tara leads one of Stewart's largest and most important businesses, one we are currently investing in due to our faith in her leadership," said Fred Eppinger, Stewart Chief Executive Officer. "We continue to enjoy watching her transform and drive tremendous results within our organization while creating opportunities for others. On behalf of the entire Stewart organization, we congratulate her on this award!"
